

White Foam

I'm missing home.
Surrounded by white foam.
But this foam has no bubbles.
It forms like frozen trouble.
It doesn't feel nice.
It's as cold as ice.
Falling freely from the sky.
I wipe tears of sadness from my eye.
Never seen such a sight.
All around me is white.
