

Far From Home

Far, far from home.
The islands are in the distance.
We've been called upon for our much needed assistance.

Far, far from home.
We accepted their invitation
to cordially rebuild
their fragile broken nation.

Far, far from home.
It was not as we expected.
Never thought or believed
we would feel so rejected.

Far, far from home.
Unpleasant and cold.
Not for the faint-hearted,
but an adventure for the bold.
