

Flavour

We infused vibrant colour
to a landscape filled with grey.
Adding splashes of chocolate hues.
We were definitely here to stay.

We brightened up gloomy skies.
Sprinkled flavour all around.
Our music was pulsating
with a rocksteady sound.

We brought our own rhythm.
Skanking to and fro,
as our skin shone brightly
with a glistening glow.

We injected our own style
in a land that was unknown.
Enriching the culture.
Making it our own.
